

Curriculum Vitae
IAN GREIG

Education:

B.Sc. Mechanical Engineering
Trent Polytechnic 1982 - 1986

Sir John Deanes Grammar School, Northwich, Cheshire
1975 - 1982
Seven 'O' Levels
Three 'A' Levels

Professional
Qualifications:

Chartered Engineer
Member of Chartered Institution of Building Services Engineers

Experience:

1999 - Present, Roger Parker Associates

Joined RPA in February 1999 as a Senior Building Services Design Engineer responsible for project development from initial conception to construction completion including client liaison, design development, detail design, tender action, and financial, program and quality control, and has developed experience in historic buildings, college and education, laboratory facilities, Current workload includes projects for Girton College, Schlumberger, ADC Theatre, Babraham Institute and Trinity College.

1994 - 1999, Building Services Design

Senior Building Services Design Engineer responsible for project including teaching accommodation in Kings Lynn, a Continuing Care Unit in Cambridge, several elderly person's homes, a chain of new supermarkets, a bank refurbishment in London, office refurbishment's in Corby and London and various Housing Association projects.

1986 - 1994, Property Services Agency

From 1989 to 1994, member of PSA Noreast Design Team, heading group of M&E Engineers in feasibility, design and installation of Combined Heat and Power Units at various RAF bases. Also completed M&E designs for Benefits Agency, Crown Prosecution Service and Communications Facilities. In 1992, promoted to SPTO.

From 1986 to 1989, member of USAF Project Management Team responsible for the organisation and control of consultants in the planning and execution of M&E projects at various USAF bases.

