

Curriculum Vitae

MEG WARRIOR (Associate)

Education: MSc in Building Services Engineering from Brunell University
BTEC, ONC, HNC & CIBSE External Associate Exams

Professional Building Qualifications: Chartered Engineer and Member of Chartered Institute of Services Engineers

Experience:

1994 - Present, Roger Parker Associates

Joined as a mechanical design engineer and successfully completed BSc and engineering qualifications under RPA sponsorship in 1997. Promoted to Associate in the same year and went on to gain MSc in 2003.

Project Engineer and mechanical design engineer on a wide range of projects including Cambridge colleges and the University, The Royal Household, Glax Wellcome and the Sanger Centre. Major projects include the £8m University Library extensions, £8.5m Magdalene College student accommodation building and a £4.5m classroom and theatre building for Northampton School for boys

Currently responsible for the mechanical services design on a refurbishment projects at St John's College, Queens' College in Cambridge and Cambridge University Library.

1987 – 1994

Progressed from initial employment as an administrative assistant, through draughtsperson and CAD operator to design engineer having undertaken a number of mature student study programmes. Included a period under short term contract to the University of Cambridge Estate Management as a project engineer on a range of their academic and research facilities.

