

Curriculum Vitae

ROGER MICHAEL PARKER

Education: Calday Grange Grammar School, Wirral 1969-1976
Eleven GCE 'O' Levels, Five GCE 'A' Levels

The City University, London 1977-1981

BSc (Hons) Environmental Engineering: Buildings

Professional Qualifications:

European Engineer (Eur Ing)

Chartered Engineer

Corporate Member of The Chartered Institution of Building Services Engineers

Member of the American Society of Heating, Refrigeration and Air Conditioning Engineers

Experience:

1992 – Present: Roger Parker Associates

Retains a strong design role within the practice and has developed experience in historic buildings, college and education facilities, sports and recreational buildings, auditoria, R&D facilities, hotels, housing, education and libraries, healthcare and many general commercial and industrial applications.

Project engineering experience includes Open University - £11m Chemistry and Space Research Institute, the £14.5m UEA Sportspark in Norwich as well as many specialist R&D laboratory and associated facilities.

1976-1992

Experienced in both Mechanical and Electrical design and project engineering. Ten years with the Property Services agency initially as a sponsored undergraduate, seven years in consulting engineering practices as associate partner. Major projects for Inland Revenue, MOD, retail, leisure, pharmaceutical, education and general commercial buildings.

Partnering Experience

Principal Member of GlaxoWellcome 'fusion' team working on the Building 2 £20m laboratory refurbishment at Ware. Core team member of the Open University Building 10 Chemistry and Planetary Sciences research building. Speaker at the BSRIA Best Practice Programme integrated Working Forum March 2003.

