

Rothamsted Research Building 63

Roger Parker Associates were part of an integrated construction team attached by SDC Builders to carry out the design and construction of this unique plant research facility.

Incorporating soil laboratories HTHP labs, cold rooms, growth rooms and CL3 GM containment facility

Roger Parker Associates provided full M&E design and commissioning management for the project which was successfully completed to schedule and on budget.

